SOUTH SAN FRANCISCO, SAN MATEO COUNTY, CALIF., THURSDAY, APRIL 9, 1925.

NO. 15.

DEBATE ON REVERSION CLAUSE STOPS DEAL ON PARKS BY BOARD

Question to Be Settled in Next Regular Session; Large Amount of Routine Business Transacted

Purchase of the city park and playground sites will not be completed until the next meeting of the board of city trustees, slated for Monday, April 20, it was decided in the meeting Monday night. The papers were ready for completion of the transaction whereby the city acquires without cost 20 acres of property in the lowlands adjoining the proposed Orange avenue and purchases of two other small tracts within the residential area for playgrounds, but a debate developed over the reversion clause in the articles which give the 20-acre piece to the city.

That clause says in substance that the property shall revert to the South San Francisco Land and Improvement Company if it is ever used for other than park purposes.

SMALL MATTERS OCCUPY BOARD'S TIME

With all of the trustees present at 7:30 p. m. an unusual amount of small business was transacted in the regular session of the board on Monday night before the larger projects were heard. Among these items were:

Petitions of residents of California and Maple streets for a light on the corner was referred to the street committee.

Petition of Mrs. J. M. Baradat for a 6 month extension of her permit to conduct dinner dances every Saturday until 2 a. m. Sunday morning was on the recommendation of Chief of Police Louis Belloni, laid over until the next meeting. Belloni at first recommended the permit to allow dancing until 12 o'clock only.

A permit was granted the Fraternal Order of Eagles to hold a dance on Saturday evening, May 2. A few minutes later the petition of the Avalon Club for the same night was reached in the stack of communications. It was rejected and the clerk was ordered to write a letter of explanation.

Hal Honore, of San Bruno, described his six-piece orchestra in a letter and begged the board for permission to hold Sunday afternoon and Wednesday night dance. His petition was refused on the ground there are plenty of local organizations giving and desirous of giving dances.

A letter from the South San Francisco Journal setting forth that a Superior Court decision had determined their status as a 'legal' paper was ordered filed when City

TO CONSIDER PLANS FOR CIVIC CENTER

At two forthcoming sessions of the city board of trustees the creators of the two plans for beautifying of the civic center will be heard and the board will choose a plan. That was the decision of the trustees in session Monday night, following acceptance of the civic center beautification committee of the chamber of commerce. That body, of which A. T. Arndt is chairman, reported on the plans of the West Coast Nursery Company, MacRorie & McLaren and Mrs. Carrie Winterhalter and recommended the MacRorie & McLaren plan.

Weed Cutting to Be Started

Plans for the annual weed cutting were discussed. Mayor McNellis expressed a wish to start earlier this year before the weeds dry and scatter their seeds. Trustee McCaffrey said some plan should be adopted whereby there would be no complaints by property holders that they had cleaned their own weeds and were then

ARRESTS DURING MARCH TOTAL 31

Thirty-one arrests were made by Chief of Police Louis Belloni and his corps of policemen during the month of March, the report of the police department to the city board of trustees in session Monday night showed. They were divided as follows: Motor vehicle law violations, 12; possession of intoxicating liquor, 2; disturbing the peace, 4; drunkenness, 8; insanity, 1; burglary, 1; battery, 3.

Fire Marshal Truax reported one fire during the month, which did $100 damage.

Electrical Inspector Byrne reported four acceptances of electrical wiring and two rejections.

POWER FRANCHISE IS DELAYED BY CO. SUPERVISORS

REDWOOD CITY, April 9.—The San Mateo County Board of Supervisors Monday laid over for one week the matter of the application of the Great Western Power Company for a franchise of lands on which to construct a distribution system to serve the coastside.

Supervisor Thomas L. Hickey caused a halt in proceedings when he pointed out a section in the application which, he said, would place the entire north end of the county into the hands of the power company and preclude any future exercise of authority on the part of the board in "protecting the interests of the public."

The application is for a right of way in a number of school districts in the northern part of the county, including Visitation, South San Francisco, San Bruno, Millbrae, Burlingame, San Mateo, Hillsborough, La Honda, San Gregorio and Pigeon Point, and all of the territory west of these districts.

Supervisor C. V. Thompson introduced a motion that the franchise be granted, and that May 11 be the date fixed for opening bids for the franchise. But Hickey took the floor again and said:

"Let the power company confine itself to the land it needs for its line. Why should it ask for all of the territory west of the school districts, too?"

Dr. Thompson said: "The people on the coast side have been burning lamps and candles long enough. We want power from some company, and want it now."

To this Hickey replied: "We want to give the coast side power, all right, but we want to consider all of the territory affected by this proposed franchise."

Chairman John MacBain and Supervisor Rosalie M. Brown agreed with Hickey.

District Attorney Franklin Swart called on for his opinion said that it was customary "for power companies to draw up applications like this."

The attorney representing the power company declared that the franchise did not differ greatly from those in effect in 19 other counties. "We must have territory to build distribution lines," he said.

Finally, the power company's attorney agreed to wait a week, during which time, he said, "we will either withdraw our application or prepare a new one suitable to the board."

Supervisor Thompson withdrew his motion.

MEN ESCAPE HURT WHEN CARS CRASH

Two men narrowly escaped serious injury at 7:30 Tuesday evening when their cars collided at the corner of Maple and Grand avenues. The Essex coach of C. Rattaro of 901 Eucalyptus avenue, was overturned on its side from the impact of the collision with the car of Frank Bellu of 664 Railroad avenue. Rattaro was traveling on Grand and Bellu was crossing Maple when the accident occurred. The front system of Bellu's car was smashed.

A large crowd gathered at the scene of the wrecks in a few seconds. Police took charge and had the two cars towed away. Neither driver was injured.

COLOMBO-FAMBRINI WEDDING SUNDAY

Miss Norma Colombo of 405 Lux avenue became the bride of John Fambrini, 603 Commercial avenue, at a pretty wedding Sunday afternoon in St. Peter and Paul's Church in San Francisco. The ceremony was read by the resident priest and following it a wedding supper was held in the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Mary J. Glavia, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, while Angelo Colombo was best man.

The young couple left Tuesday on a trip of ten days and upon their return will live with the mother of the bride while Mr. John Colombo, her father, tours Italy. He will leave next Sunday, to be gone several months.

pointment of a truant officer if they think it necessary.

"Bring Your Own Axe" Is Request of Orange Avenue Day Committee

Everybody bring an axe, a pick or a maddock to the spots where Orange avenue is going to be on Sunday, April 19.

That is the request of the Board of Trustees, following the meeting on Monday night in the city hall. Trustee McCaffrey of the purchasing committee will buy several brush axes and other tools but all other participants in the "work and eat" program are ordered to bring their own implements for cutting and digging.

Trustee A. J. Eschelbach, chairman of the Orange Avenue Day committee, reported the Woman's Club will provide salad and coffee, the meat companies will provide beef (steers), The Merchants Association members will be prepared to dig in, the Legionnaires of Bernard McCaffrey Post No. 85 will be on the job in a body, and the Boy Scouts will serve the eats. All that will occur, he said, if City Engineer Kneese will lay the lines for the street.

Kneese said he would and he did, on Tuesday last. So everything is in readiness for the workers.

Oh, yes! Pete Lind, barbecue chef, will be furnished with a letter of authorization whereby he can inveigle every able-bodied butcher in the city to assist him in carving the beeves during the barbecue.

Blow That Killed Curfew Delivered

Curfew will neither ring nor blow. Fire Marshal Truax and Chief of Police Belloni have decided. The reason is a single blast of the fire whistle is automatically sounded when the line becomes out of order. Signals up to five blasts are already part of the system. To blow a curfew it would be necessary to go over five blasts which is impracticable. That was Truax's version.

Chief of Police Belloni reported the police officers are now sending the children off the streets after 9 o'clock and there is no occasion for the sounding of a blast.

So, curfew shall neither ring nor blow.

DRUNKS ENRICH CITY TREASURY WITH $10 FINES

Two men paid fines of $10 each for celebrating last Sunday with too much of the cup that cheers. M. Nemanick of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company construction camp and W. H. Mittel of the Metropolitan Hotel appeared before City Recorder Ed Nolan on Monday morning, entered pleas of guilty and paid $10 fines. They were arrested by Officer Walter Miller.

On Wednesday morning G. Carlier of 3831 Army street, San Francisco, paid $5 for violating motor vehicle laws on Sunday and Johannes Duggen also was fined $5 for passing a car at an intersection. Duggen lives at 2268 Pine street.

SCHOOL BONDS BRING LARGE SALE PREMIUM

What is considered an enormous premium was secured for this school district in the sale of bonds recently voted by the supervisors last Monday.

Bond, Goodwin & Tucker purchased the $120,000 grammar school bonds and $54,000 high school bonds offering a premium of $8008 or $6,006 on the former and $2002 on the latter.

There were ten bidders for the high school bonds and twelve for the grammar paper.

The Boy Scouts will be there, too, for the Orange Avenue Day celebration, Sunday, April 19. That the movement appeals to the scouts is attested by the following letter from Scoutmaster Fred Schmidt:

THOMAS WIEDEMANN, SAN BRUNO PUBLISHER, BUYS THE ENTERPRISE

Veteran Newspaperman to Take Charge With Issue of Thursday, April 23 as Editor and Publisher

Thomas Wiedemann, publisher of the San Bruno Recorder, has purchased the South San Francisco Enterprise and will take possession of this publication with the issue of Thursday April 23rd, as editor and publisher. Mr. Wiedemann, though still a comparatively young man has a record of travel in various parts of the world, under exciting and unusual conditions probably duplicated by few newspaper publishers. During the Klondike rush, while still in his teens, Mr. Wiedemann journeyed to the far north in a country among the "Sour Doughs" before the big rush was under way. He shipped on a whaler and reached the farthest point north in the Arctic ever reached by a whaling fleet, in search of news and adventure. Eight months were spent among the Esquimaux where, for Miss Alice Rollins Crane, sent out by the Smithsonian Institute at Washington D. C., Mr. Wiedemann secured valuable information in connection with the natives of America's most northern possession. Returning to Seattle, Washington, he was, through Kenneth Beaton of K. C. B. fame, appointed on the Seattle Star as special writer. Sent down to the Grays Harbor country among the big loggers Mr. Wiedemann secured information in connection with a big lumber combine which resulted in a congressional investigation at Washington D. C. Later, migrating to Canada, he was employed on the staff of the Vancouver World and Vancouver Sun and was assigned to the Prince of Wales party and also the Duke of Connaught's party during their tour of Western Canada. For about a year Mr. Wiedemann was a special writer for the Newspaper Enterprise Association, writing special articles for some 60 newspapers in United States and Canada.

Mr. Wiedemann took an active part in Canadian politics while in that country. When the great world war broke out he was one of 60,000 Americans to enlist as a volunteer in the Canadian Expeditionary forces. He served through the war, was wounded in three different engagements, spent much time in hospitals in both France and England. He assisted in handling the tables by received several medals for gallantry.

SCOUTS EXPECT BIG WHIST PARTY CROWD

Merchants and citizens have been very kind in their donations to the affair and an unusual list of awards has been gathered. The affair starts at 8 o'clock and the scouts will be assisted in handling the tables by members of the American Legion.

JEFFERSON NINE DEFEATS DALY CITY PLAYERS

On the afternoon of April 2, an exciting ball game was played on the Jefferson Union High School grounds. The Jefferson Grammar School nine defeated the Daly City team. The game commenced at 3:30 p. m., and nine innings were played. The Jeffersons showed their schoolmates who witnessed the game that they could play by the score of 13 to 3 in their favor. The team consists of the following local lads: Perun Wullich, catcher; Louis Gueste, pitcher; Temo Boni, first baseman; Harry Deller, second baseman; Lawrence Kennedy, third baseman; Roy Seramaglia, shortstop; Albert Bertucci, right field; Ben Schindler, left field, and Richard Bauer, center field.

Louis Gueste was the star pitcher, and was greatly cheered for his skillful pitching. Harry Deller and Perun Wullich also played brilliantly. This team will soon meet the boys of the Crocker Trace School and hope for another victory.

Mrs. Ellen Linden was called to Los Angeles Tuesday because of the serious illness of her mother, who resides there.

The girls of Jefferson Union High School met the San Mateo High School baseball team on the local diamond last Friday. It was an interesting and exciting game, and was won by the San Mateo players.

At the election for grammar school trustee last Friday Louis Nava was elected, having no opposition. There was a spirited contest between Lewis Stark of Colma and Carl Worst of Daly City for high school trustee, but Stark was the winner. Mrs. Jensen was unopposed for high school trustee.

Ralph Riches of Price street is spending the Easter vacation at the Brookers ranch, near Petaluma.

Mr. Gambetta of Redwood City, formerly of Colma, was in town Friday of last week, on business.

Mrs. E. Bergmann and Misses Eleanor Bergmann, Eliza and Margaret Alger of San Francisco, spent Tuesday at the Haubrich home on Mission street.

The children of the Jefferson School District are enjoying an Easter vacation of one week.

The Jefferson high school baseball team met the Grammar school team recently, the high school being victorious with a score of 11 to 2.

A number of local whist players attended the whist and dance given in Masonic Hall, Daly City, last Saturday evening.

The California History Club of El Carmelo Parlor had a most enjoyable meeting at the M. H. De Young Memorial Museum in Golden Gate Park on Saturday afternoon, when they were entertained by George H. Barron, curator of the institution, and his daughter, Miss Dolores Barron, who is a club member. The meeting was held in the pioneer gallery of the museum and was very interesting as well as instructive.

A fine big radio set built by Mr. Kleemeyer of the high school faculty, was raffled at the big whist party and dance given last Saturday evening at Holy Angels' Parish Hall, by the Colma Community Center, for the purpose of furnishing rest rooms in the new Jefferson Union High School building. Dancing was enjoyed after the whist.

Indians Feared Results of Eating Wild Turkey

Buffalo meat was, of course, the mainstay and universal dish of the plains Indians—now, dried, jerked, dried and pounded in the form of pemmican of wasna, as the Sioux called it; sometimes mixed with berries gathered by the squaws, but generally "just plain wasna," explained Frank M. Huston in Adventure Magazine.

The hump and tongue were the choicest portions when fresh, though the latter was dried by thousands.

Of course, in their season roots and tubers, as well as wild fruits—especially wild plums—added to the larder. Sometimes wild grapes were added to give a dessert finish; but no Indian would eat apples when first introduced to them, nor would the men eat the wild turkey lest they become cowardly as the bird itself. They believed—as do our dietitians—that "a man is what he eats."

Fish to the plains tribes was almost anathema, though some would eat it when placed before them. But none would ever demean himself by exertions in fishing. Meat was a man's food and "makes us strong."

Swallows with rings on their legs have been released in England and found in South Africa, 6,000 miles away.

TWO INITIATED BY NATIVE DAUGHTERS

Last Wednesday evening at the regular meeting of El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, in Masonic Hall, Daly City, two new candidates were initiated into the parlor. District Deputy Grand President Rena Mathias delivered the congratulatory address to Mrs. Augustin and Mrs. Fopiano, the new candidates. A committee headed by Mrs. Annie Biggio was appointed for the next whist party and dance to take place in Masonic Hall, Daly City, on Wednesday evening, April 15. Mrs. Lorraine Wall reported that the March whist had been successful, and Mrs. Rena Mathias reported on the progress of the drill team. After the regular business of the evening was completed, a delicious spread was served in the banquet hall and a delicious April Fools' cake was enjoyed.

The Boetto dry goods store is now located nearer to Mission street.

The whist party and dance to be given by El Carmelo Parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West, in Masonic Hall, Daly City, on Wednesday evening, April 15, is in charge of Mrs. Annie Biggio and an active committee.

Many local people attended the laying of the cornerstone of St. Maximus Church last Sunday. The ceremony commenced with a splendid drill display by the Eagles' Drum Corps. Monseigneur Joseph Gleason blessed the cornerstone and delivered the closing oration.

Bob Dorence of Montara was in town last Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert Silva of San Francisco was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Haubrich on Mission street last Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Edward Bauer of Price street entertained Mrs. Annie Biggio, Mrs. Lena Homer, Mrs. Carl Schwarz and Mrs. Stockton at her home last Friday. After a pleasant afternoon of sewing, delicious refreshments were served.

Ricco Lagomarsino has sold his Hudson touring car to Joseph Shindler and has purchased a Studebaker sedan.

Miss Libera Boetto has now established her beauty parlor on San Pedro avenue, near Mission street.

Mrs. Robert Herringa of Price street was ill at her home several days of last week.

Mrs. E. Maffei, Mrs. E. Bergmann, Mrs. B. W. Haubrich and Miss Sylvia Haubrich were tendered a delightful luncheon by Mrs. William Ballhaus and Mrs. Frank Senn at the beautiful home of Mr. and Mrs. John Merlo on Mateo avenue.

Women Ruled in Days of Our Cave Ancestors

Old-fashioned ideas as to man's supremacy in the days when the earth was young have had a rude jolt, according to an eminent statement of ancient manners and customs. It is now declared that woman, in the days of our cave-dwelling ancestors, was regarded as of the more important sex. Men held a secondary position, tolerated for the sake of the food and skins provided. Women ruled, and were the inventors of the earliest arts and sciences. It was the woman's ingenuity which devised snares for animals and made plans for storing food against times of scarcity. Women taught ways of making clothing from skins of animals and by the efforts of their brains improved the lot of all the human race. Woman's cunning and wit were the outcome of her lack of physical strength, which obliged her to resort to strategy rather than force. On the whole, the prehistoric woman apparently held the same position and ruled man in the same manner that she does today. Man possibly thought he was boss, but so long as he didn't know any better, what difference did it make?

ABOUT THE BOY SCOUTS

Project to Raise Funds for Equipment and to Increase Number of Scouts Is Worthy of Support

There is a chance for the person who is interested in the training of the youth of the city to do a worthwhile deed and enjoy himself at the same time. On next Wednesday evening the Boy Scouts are giving a whist party to secure funds with which to buy equipment.

The scouts here are a very small group. But they are ambitious to increase their numbers. They believe that activity is the best method for securing new recruits. In order to carry on their activities they need a small amount of money. Rather than ask for donations, which is not the fashion of real Boy Scouts, they are putting on a whist party.

You doubtless know a number of boys who would join the scouts if they could and who would be benefited by belonging. By attending the whist party Wednesday night you will make it possible for more boys to join and you will be helping to build better citizens.

NOW FOR THE WORK

Preparations for Orange Avenue Day Are Practically Completed; Cutting of Street Is a Necessity to the City

With all preparations for Orange Avenue Day practically completed there remains but little to do but wait until Sunday, April 19, and then show up ready for work, unless perhaps you are averse to a little light labor on Sunday.

No one is duty bound to do a share of work on that day. Completion of Orange avenue means a great deal to every citizen of the city. Providing a highway into the city for a section that has hitherto been practically isolated is bound to benefit everyone in the long run. More money will be spent here, more stores will be built, and more people will say they "live" in South San Francisco.

Whether or not you care to work on Sunday, and most of us do a little tinkering around the house or on the car or in the garage, the thing that should attract is the prospect of working with hundreds of others on something that will benefit the entire community. And it won't be work in the sense word is generally spoken of. There will be fun mixed up with it.

TO EUROPE VIA THE NORTH POLE

McMillan, Arctic Explorer, Foresees Airplane Route From California to London at $200 a Passenger

"Immediately below you is the North Pole. The next stop will be Spitzbergen, and passengers will have opportunity for exercise and other refreshment while the ship is being refueled."

McMillan, the Arctic explorer, is reported as seriously propounding the feasibility of establishing airplane transportation to Europe in relative comfort during the summer months at a cost of only $200 fare for the trip and considerably less than three days for its accomplishment. We have so recently been accustomed to regarding the North Pole as a practically inaccessible spot—as indeed it has been—that this proposal has a completely fantastic sound. Or it would have, except that no proposal nowadays sounds wholly impossible.

Certainly the distance from San Francisco to London and Paris is much less over the top of the world than it is across the Atlantic, and airplanes are swifter than railroad trains or steamships. Airplane passenger transportation, also, as demonstrated by the great amount of it—more in Europe than in this country—has been proven safe. The prospect of sitting for three days in the seat of even a tolerably comfortable airplane and of getting a chance for exercise and muscle stretching only at three or four spots in the arctic region, or not far from it, does not, to be sure, have an inviting sound; but a three-day trip from California to England or France at only $200 fare would compensate for much. And the scenery would be fine!

There is a suggestion that as a feature to mark the California Diamond Jubilee a flight be undertaken from Paris over the arctic wastes to San Francisco. This flight being successful, it is argued, the development of regular passenger service would follow along in natural course.

The course of such a flight would be from Northern Alaska over the North Pole or somewhere in that general region to Spitzbergen and thence to London and Paris, it is outlined, with refueling stations in Northern Alaska and Spitzbergen, and possibly in some as yet undiscovered spot within the Arctic Circle. It is not clear whether the $200 fare that is suggested as reasonable will take the passenger from San Francisco to Europe or from the Northern Alaska jumping-off place. That is a trivial detail in such a large scheme, but important, too, for it would be irksome to have to pay as much to get to the starting place for the flight as the announced cost of the trip to Europe.

However, that is a minor matter that can be disposed of nearer the time when the regular schedule goes into effect—and, in spite of the fact that nobody ought to be too skeptical about anything these days, we do not think that will be during next summer at least.

OUR FLEET "A GREAT ARMADA"

Whether It Will Become Greater or Less in Size Will Depend Upon the Next Armament Conference

The United States navy fleet is anchored for a few days in San Francisco bay, during a sojourn stop-over which breaks the cruise to Hawaii where war maneuvers are to be gone through for instructive purposes. The visit is a gala occasion in San Francisco, and for a good part of California. The "great armada," as it is referred to most often by the feature writers, is the cynosure of sightseers. The "gobs" are welcomed ashore and fêted. The officers are done social homage at banquets and receptions. The silent procession of the warcraft themselves as the 100 and more fighting ships steamed into the harbor was followed Monday by a street pageant in which 10,000 sailors marched in a three-mile parade through streets that were colorful with holiday trimmings and alive with the enthusiasm of the dense crowds that lined up to "see the show."

But while we are in the midst of our boastful admiration of the "great armada," it is an opportune time to inquire what it all is about. What significance has this visit of the fleet aside from affording us a "mighty spectacle of power"? What relation has this cruise to the burning issue of the future—war or peace?

The answer depends entirely upon the popular reaction. And that depends in part upon what kinds of attempts are made to direct that reaction.

"A navy," as Secretary Wilbur reminded the public recently, "exists for the purpose of fighting." The mission of the United States navy, we are moved to say in supplementing the words of the navy secretary, is not to pick fights, but to stop them when other powers may be moved to pick fights with us. But the pertinent question here is: What will be stimulated most among other nations by this great show of our fighting sea strength? Will it be the disposition to pick a fight with us or to curtail their own naval preparations?

Left to themselves, it seems only logical to expect that the other powers would be impelled by this impressive parading of our sea weapons to support the plan of adding a few to their own naval forces. But the American people have within their own capacity for expressed public opinion the means of influencing the other powers toward the opposite end. That can be by a popular support of the president's second armament conference proposal.

If we are to look on in admiration as the fleet sails before our eyes and shout enthusiastically for "a still greater navy," we are helping along the war game. But if, on the contrary, we modify our admiration to the extent of deploring the world's traditions that have led to the necessity for such an extravagant outlay in "a great armada" conceived with an ultimate purpose of destruction, we are helping along the peace game.

If while the "great armada" is within sight and the atmosphere is surcharged with enthusiasm for things naval we can find it possible to register a protest against the conditions that force nations to build and maintain such fleets, we will be testing the sincerity of our subscription to the peace cause.

The fleet that is in San Francisco bay today would have been larger had it not been for the agreements reached at the first Washington armament conference. The size of the armada on its next parade will be the measure of the progress or retrogression that the peace movement will have achieved by that time.

NEW OFFICERS NAMED FOR PENINSULA CHAMBERS, FED.

New officers were elected, the program of activities for the ensuing year was modified, and a report of the first year's activities reviewed at the meeting of the Peninsula Chamber of Commerce, Federated, held Tuesday night in Burlingame. The new officers are as follows: P. Milton Smith of Mountain View, president; F. A. Cunningham of South San Francisco, vice president; Ray W. Smith of Palo Alto, secretary. The retiring officers are George F. Morell of Palo Alto, president; Frank Thrall of Burlingame, vice president; and Murphy McHenry of San Mateo, secretary.

Retain Old Aims

Bay district regional planning was adopted as a new activity of the federation. Of the original list of activities, the following were retained for the ensuing year: Water supply, highways, transportation, highway beautification, Bayshore highway, Coyote Point bridge. The following were suspended: Terminal rates, concerted advertising, tourist hotels, home building and financing, dredging South San Francisco bar, and Dumbarton bridge.

New Program

A motion providing for a committee to bring in a new program of work at the next quarterly meeting was carried. Another motion was passed providing for appointment of a committee to work with the San Francisco Regional Planning Association. It was voted also to increase the dues of the federation to $10 a year for each member organization. Co-operation of the federation in the movement to secure the widening of the tunnel at the cemeteries on El Camino Real was asked by Daniel J. Imboden of San Mateo.

A resolution proposed by E. B. Hinman, president of the Redwood City Chamber of Commerce, was carried, providing as follows: "Resolved, that the Peninsula Chambers of Commerce, Federated, in meeting this seventh day of April, requests the honorable board of supervisors of San Mateo county to require, before granting to individuals or firms franchises for the operation of toll bridges, substantial cash bond to insure promptness in starting construction and the completion of said toll bridges."

Auditors' Report

A report was adopted from the auditing committee, composed of C. S. Crary, Burlingame; C. N. Lake, Mountain View, and Ray W. Smith, Palo Alto. The nominating committee was composed of Frank Towne, Redwood City, and Gordon Hess, Burlingame.

Annual Report

The following report on the first year's activities of the federation was given by the retiring president: "The Peninsula Chambers of Commerce, Federated, came into being a year ago to fill the need for an organization which could coordinate the efforts of individual communities in solving the problems common to the entire peninsula. The increasing complexities of the highway, transportation and water supply needs in particular had convinced the various communities of the necessity for unity of action before any real progress could be made.

"This organization from the beginning has had a keen realization of the fact that a similar federation went on the rocks because it attempted to foster projects about which there was a decided difference of opinion among its members. Therefore the first and basic principle established by this organization was that no item should become a part of its major program unless endorsed unanimously by all members. I believe that the continued success of this federation is based on a strict adherence to this principle.

"The things for which our executives have labored chiefly during this first year have been intangible things. We have sought first to break down the old feeling of community isolation and suspicion of neighboring towns and then to substitute a feeling of interdependence, trust and good will.

Moved Cautiously

"In order to inspire this feeling of respect and confidence we have purposely moved cautiously and conservatively, building with an eye to the future, rather than to the immediate present.

"The best evidence that we have secured this feeling of confidence was demonstrated by the ease with which we were able to raise the money for the Bayshore highway campaign fund.

"Naturally the work of an organization covering so much territory as this must be done through committees. As always, some of these committees have functioned actively and well, and others have been more or less dormant. I wish particularly to commend the following committees for their good work:

"Bayshore highway.
 "Water supply.
 "Highway beautification.
 "Concerted advertising.
 "Dredging South San Francisco bar.

"Tourist hotels.
 "I believe that some of the projects included in our last program can well be eliminated from this year's schedule, either because of lack of interest or because they can best be handled locally. I refer particularly to those on terminal rates, concerted advertising, tourist hotels, home building and financing, dredging South San Francisco bar, and Dumbarton bridge.

Appreciates Support

"In closing I wish to express my deep appreciation for the enthusiasm and hard work and loyal support which you have given me during this first year of the federation. I also feel indebted on behalf of the federation for the co-operation given us by Santa Clara County Consolidated and the various service clubs of the peninsula and valley. My work as president of the federation this past year has been one of the pleasantest experiences of my whole life, and it is your helpfulness and co-

WHO'S WHO in the HIGH SCHOOL

Frank H. Poytress

Frank H. Poytress is the newest teacher in the high school. He came to take charge of the new class in the Junior High which came over from the grammar school in February. He possesses an interesting background of extensive travel in Europe. He was born in England and received his very early education there. The Washington Union High School of Fresno, Calif., awarded him his diploma with second highest class honors. At the University of California he majored in history, laboratory sciences and mathematics, and took a year's post-graduate course as well. He spent two years with the American Expeditionary Forces in Siberia.

Before coming here, Mr. Poytress taught in one of the Los Angeles high schools, and has also taught advanced mathematics in the San Francisco schools. While at present he is teaching junior high subjects, next year he is to be the assistant in the science department.

He has found his place among the boys of the school. As popular baseball coach, he is always seen indoors or outdoors with a crowd of enthusiasts about him. His own participation in both high school and university basketball, track, and baseball have given him a storehouse of experience to produce a championship baseball team this year. So far the local boys have won the first two games, and prospects are good for more victories. While others are enjoying their Eastern vacations, Mr. Poytress is busy this week coaching his team on the school playgrounds.

One Place Where Rat Is Not Thought Pest

A deity whose name is Ganesha is worshipped by the Hindus. Because Ganesha is always pictured riding on a rat or attended by one, the rat receives part of the homage directed to that of god. For this reason many rats live in state in the temple at Deshnoke, India, where there is an old and interesting shrine erected to this mythological god.

Pilgrims prostrate themselves before a group of rats, which have no idea of life beyond that of eating everything available and keeping a safe distance from cats and hawks. But they represent the rat god, Ganesha, and the temple in which they live is sacred on account of their presence. It is even called "the Rat Temple."

According to Hindu mythology Ganesha was the lord of the Ganas, who were a group of inferior deities. Ganesha removes obstacles. He is propitiated at the beginning of any undertaking. He is particularly endowed with wisdom and judgment.

operation which have made it so."

A motion was passed expressing the thanks of the federation membership to the retiring officers for their work.

EAST NORTH CENTRAL AREA SENDING MANY SETTLERS TO STATE

Contrary to the prevailing opinion that the majority of new settlers in California come from the Middle West, figures just released by L. C. Williams, director of the information bureau of the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce, show that of the thousands of letters received last year by the chamber from persons, other than those living in California, who contemplated locating in San Francisco, 21 per cent came from the territory known as the East North Central area, comprising the states of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin.

Second in rank were the so-called Middle Atlantic states, comprising New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania, from which 19 per cent of all inquiries were received by the chamber of commerce.

In other words, the largest proportion of inquiries came from the states in which are located the great industrial, commercial and financial centers of the United States. The fact that San Francisco is the premier industrial and financial center of the Pacific coast is making itself known throughout the country and is attracting the manufacturer and the financier.

The West North Central section, or the real Middle West area, ranked third with 15 per cent of

REDWOOD TO HAVE NEW M. E. CHURCH

REDWOOD CITY, April 9.—With the granting of the building permit work on the new First Methodist Episcopal Church to be located at the corner of Brewster street and Broadway, is expected to be under way soon.

The structure, which is to be a two-story church building, will cost $25,000, and will be in "Mission" style architecture.

The completion of the building will mark the successful termination of the labors of a building committee, which has been working for months upon the problem of arranging for suitable accommodations for the increasing congregation.

The Reverend H. Owens is pastor of the Methodist church here.

The total number of inquiries coming from prospective settlers in these states. States included in this geographical designation are: Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

During the same period letters were received from 15 foreign countries that the writers were contemplating locating in San Francisco.

VOTING IS CLOSE IN SAN MATEO CITY ELECTION

Fred E. Beer, Arthur J. Watson and Thomas J. Brady were elected to positions on the San Mateo City Council at a hotly fought election Tuesday. Wednesday there were hints of a recount demand.

J. E. Casey and William J. Eva, incumbent councilmen, were defeated. The vote:

Beer, 1132; Watson, 1065; Brady, 993; Casey, 991, and Eva, 981. There were eight candidates in the field.

Woman Loses
By an overwhelming vote, City Clerk Edward W. Foster defeated his opponent, Miss Elma Early. The vote: Foster, 1228; and Early, 791.

Library Fails
A $35,000 bond issue to enlarge the city library lacked 126 of having a necessary two-thirds majority.

KITCHEN CUPBOARD

By NELLIE MAXWELL

Fish and Meat Sauces

A DELICIOUS well-cooked fish is without any attractiveness to the average person unless accompanied by a good sauce. The garnishing, too, adds much to its palatability.

Olive and Almond Sauce.—Melt three tablespoons of butter, add three of flour and when well blended pour on gradually one cupful of white stock. Just before serving add one teaspoonful of beef extract, eight olives cut in half and cut into quarters, one-half teaspoonful of lemon juice, one-fourth cupful of shredded almonds, salt and pepper to taste. This sauce is served with boiled or steamed fish.

Cucumber Sauce.—Grated cucumber, salt, vinegar, salt and pepper added, is very good with broiled fish. Another is prepared by grating one cucumber, add one-half cupful of heavy cream which has been beaten stiff, salt and cayenne, and gradually two tablespoonsful of vinegar.

Tartar Sauce.—Mix one tablespoonful of vinegar, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, one-fourth teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce in a bowl and beat over hot water. Brown one-third of a cupful of butter carefully and strain into the first mixture.

Oyster Sauce.—Heat one pint of oysters in their own liquor and cook until plump. Remove the oysters and prepare a sauce, using one-fourth cupful each of flour and butter, one cupful of milk or chicken broth and the oyster liquor. Cook until smooth, add the oysters and serve on toast or with fish.

Maitre d'Hotel Butter.—Cream one-fourth of a cupful of butter, add three-fourths of a tablespoonful of lemon juice, one-half tablespoonful of finely minced parsley, salt and cayenne. Serve with broiled steak or with fish.

Potatoes Stuffed With Sausage.—Select large potatoes and with an apple corer remove the centers lengthwise. Fill with little sausages and bake on the rack in a dripping pan. Serve with the gravy made from the drippings in the pan, adding water and seasonings. Bacon rolled may be used in place of the sausages.

Policy of Silence Makes Few Enemies

A keen observer recently remarked that harsh words in the English language have more synonyms than pleasant words have. A little turning of the pages of the dictionary bears him out.

If you say a man tells the truth you have said it all. There is no neat and forceful way of emphasizing and enlarging upon that. But if you say he lies you will find a hundred subtleties in the use of the word. From the "short and ugly" to "equivocate," "quibble," "prevaricate" and the like, the list is long, says the Montreal Star.

One politician made himself famous by saying of another that he "was economical in the use of the truth to the verge of parsimoniousness." Such a statement draws a smile. It is bland, it is suave, it has the mild sting of vinegar, not the burning erosion of vitriol.

Even better than such elaborate circumlocutions to express a thing which at best we should have left unsaid is to forego for the moment being clever, and to keep our peace. The world will think more highly of us for it.

Railway ties of this country placed in roads in other lands last year had a total value of $2,500,000.

FLEET IN BAY ONE OF MOST POWERFUL IN HISTORY OF WORLD

The fleet which dropped anchor in San Francisco Bay Sunday is one of the most powerful ever assembled in the history of naval warfare. In number of ships it is somewhat smaller than the British grand fleet of 1917, even before American vessels joined that aggregation, but in weight of a single broadside it is not far below that force, while in range and steaming ability it is declared not far from the best in the world.

The fighting ace of the fleet is Battleship Division Five, the only 16-inch gun battleship division in the world. Three ships comprise this—the West Virginia, Maryland, and Colorado. These ships are the spearhead of the fleet attack. The Tennessee, mounting 14-inch guns, is attached to this division.

Division Four
Division four of the battle fleet comprises four ships mounting twelve 14-inch guns each. These are the California, Idaho, Mississippi and New Mexico. They are approximately 600 feet long, 97 feet wide and draw about 30 feet of water, with slight variations for the individual ships.

Division three carries a little less metal. The ships in it are the Pennsylvania, Oklahoma, Nevada, and Arizona. The Pennsylvania and Arizona mount twelve 14-inch guns each and are about the size of the California. The Nevada and Oklahoma mount but 14-inch guns each and are about the size of the other two and have a beam 27.500 tons; the tonnage of the other six ships in the fleet mounting 14-inch guns runs upward to 33,190.

The slowest of these battleships can make 20.5 knots an hour and all but two of them can make 21 knots. The horsepower of their plants ranges upward from 27,500 to 32,000. The cruising range is 4,000 miles or more at full speed and 10,000 miles or more at economical speeds, accord to the ships.

Old Wyoming Listed
In addition to these battleships, the old Wyoming is included in the scouting fleet, not listed in any of the battleship divisions. She mounts twelve 12-inch guns.

There are seven light cruisers in the scouting fleet—the Richmond, Milwaukee, Cincinnati and Trenton in division two and the Marblehead, Detroit and Raleigh in division three. There also is another light cruiser, the Omaha, as flagship of the battle fleet's destroyer squadron, and a ninth, the Concord, as flagship of the scouting fleet destroyers.

These are all of the same type—

His Gratitude Greater Than His Knowledge

A Filipino boy who had studied English in a Hawaiian night school sent the following letter to a white man who had befriended him and who had made him present of some pictures and a shirt:

WELFARE CLUB HAS ITALIAN NIGHT

The Welfare Club of the Western Meat Company held its monthly entertainment at its club rooms Tuesday evening. A very attractive program, arranged by Caesar Lencioni, was presented. It consisted of the following numbers: Orchestral selections by the Solo brothers orchestra; operatic selections by Miss Emilie de Prato, accompanied by Miss Rosalini Davis at the piano; solo dances by Miss Helen Laufer; songs by Cigalupi.

At the close of the program, the guests adjourned to the dining room to partake of an Italian dinner, prepared by Mrs. Fanny Mummert and Mrs. A. Atzori. The dining room was attractively prepared for the event and a corps of lovely girls served. Among these were the Misses Rose Lewis, Celia Lombardi, Mary Felichea, Vivian Holbrook, Edith Guadagni, Katherine Guadagni and Mrs. B. Cigalupi.

After dinner, the Solo brothers furnished music for the dance until midnight.

A large number of the members and their families attended the affair which was very gratifying to the committee who had worked hard to make the affair the success that it was.

One of the features of the evening which probably claimed more interest than any one other was the raffling of the Ford Coupe. This was won by George Casey who drives the car home if he calls for it within two weeks. In the event it is uncalled for, Carl Welte gets the prize.

The next affair of the Welfare Club will be held at Fraternal Hall in South San Francisco on Wednesday evening, April 22. The entertainment will feature "Cosmopolitan night" and will be followed by a dance. Keep this date in mind and plan to be there.

NEW AUTO CLUB HOME IS OPENED TO PUBLIC

This attractive office building, San Mateo district office of the California State Automobile Association, is the new home of the association's chain of 22 district offices.

Distinctive recognition of San Mateo county as a rapidly increasing membership and touring center is represented in the move of the California State Automobile Association in the construction of its new district office which was recently occupied in San Mateo. It is located at 100 El Camino Real at the junction of the Crystal Springs road.

The new building is a one-story structure of re-enforced concrete and of the attractive architectural design adopted by the association as standard for all its new buildings. It is especially designed for the carrying on of the automobile association's business and service activities and is equipped with rest rooms for the convenience of members and the touring public.

Not only will the new San Mateo district office improve the character of the service to the association's rapidly growing membership in this county, but it has become a necessity for serving touring members and visiting motorists who are flocking to this district in ever increasing numbers.

CONGESTION IS MAIN CAUSE OF AUTO ACCIDENTS

Statistics of highway accidents, involving motor vehicles, which seem to point clearly to congestion of traffic as the principal cause, have recently been compiled from newspaper reports of accidents in the states of Montana, Oregon and Washington by the Bureau of Public Roads of the United States Department of Agriculture. The bureau's study shows that Montana with the lowest registration has the smallest number of accidents per 1,000 cars, while Washington with the largest registration has the most accidents per 1,000 cars. This does not agree with national estimates which indicate that the rate of accidents decreased with increased numbers.

During a period of eight months newspaper reports of 1,666 accidents in the three states mentioned were secured, and from the accounts given the causes of accidents classified as follows:

Faulty operation by driver... 1029
Faults of others than drivers... 191
Faulty equipment... 181
Faulty highway conditions... 14

The detailed statement of the causes of accident shows that 711, or more than 40 per cent of the total, were caused by reckless or careless driving.

Of the 214 accidents caused by faulty highway conditions, 19 were caused by narrow roadways and 150 by skiddy surfaces.

Beggars' Trade Union

In China one of the most formidable trade unions is that of the beggars. Begging in that country is a recognized profession, and there is a properly organized guild of beggars in most districts.

Each guild has its own president and officers, and the members pay an annual subscription equaling about $4 in our money. The officials of the guilds wield such power that they enjoy the protection of the magistracy.

So far there has been no strike on the part of the members of this union, which is undoubtedly the quaintest organization of its kind in the world.

How Cannon Are Spiked

In former times when the old-fashioned type of cannon was used the guns were disabled by driving an iron spike into the opening at the breech through which fire was communicated to the powder. This was called "spiking" the cannon. It was done when it was necessary to leave the guns behind, to prevent their immediate use by the enemy. Such disablement was usually only temporary. The phrase, however, is retained in modern military usage. Spiking a cannon nowadays means breaking or carrying away part of the breech mechanism, making it impossible to use the gun without considerable repair.—Exchange.

NEW MILK LAW IS ADOPTED IN REDWOOD CITY

REDWOOD CITY, April 9.—A new milk ordinance that will fix the standards of milk sold in Redwood City was ordered by the city trustees at a meeting in the city hall Monday night.

City Attorney Albert Mansfield was instructed to prepare an ordinance similar to one adopted by the county supervisors. He will submit the measure at the next meeting of the trustees.

Inspector Present

This action was taken after George Fry, recently appointed county dairy inspector by the supervisors, had addressed the trustees on the subject of milk.

Fry recommended that the city board pass an ordinance specifying that no milk should be sold in the city unless it conformed with the standards set by the state.

The inspector declared that some local producers were at a disadvantage because they could not sell graded milk such as competitors from Palo Alto and San Francisco distributors were selling.

Asks Money Aid

In addition to recommending that the trustees adopt a milk ordinance, Fry asked the trustees to contribute towards the support of the milk inspection service. He said the county law allowed a tax of one-sixth of a cent per gallon of milk, to be used for financing. He stated that additional funds would be needed from municipalities, and that $25 per month would probably be the amount necessary from Redwood City. This was subject to the final decision of the board of supervisors, he explained.

Sees Advantages

"If $25 a month will guarantee pure, healthy milk, it is money well spent," Trustee George McNulty declared at this juncture.

Fry told the board that "some dairies around here need attention."

On motion of Trustee Carl Macle, seconded by McNulty, the city attorney was empowered to draft an ordinance like the county's.

Blessings of Quarantine

"I wish to thank the city authorities for quarantining my family and me recently for three weeks because one of them had smallpox. During that time my wife caught up with her sewing. We had three square meals every day, as no one came in and she was not permitted to leave. We enjoyed three weeks of good nights' sleep, and best of all, a cousin with four children, who had arranged to visit us, saw the smallpox sign on the door and left town so scared that she will never come back again."

The above letter of thanks was received by a city health department recently.—From Hygeia.

Offered Congress Home

The first fiscal proposal received by congress looking to the location of the seat of government came from Kingston, N. DUMMY BAR FAILS TO HALT RAID OFFICERS

Two bars, one in front serving soft drinks, and one behind serving drinks of a more dubious nature, comprised the equipment of the establishment of Angelo Turco, at Lomita Park, according to Sheriff T. C. McGovern who, accompanied by Constable J. Wallace, raided the place at 11 o'clock on Saturday night.

After vainly searching through a host of bottles for evidence, the sheriff and constable finally unearthed three bottles of "moonshine" and four bottles of wine. In the house a quantity of beer was found.

Turco and his wife Marie were charged with operating a soft drink parlor without a license and the illegal possession of liquor. They were released on $2,000 bail bonds by Justice of the Peace Ray Griffin.

"The Mills of the Gods"

This is an old Greek aphorism taken from the "Oracle Sibyllina." The original, literally translated, reads as follows: "The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind small." Longfellow, in translating it, inserted the word "exceeding" and made it read: "The mills of the gods grind slowly, but they grind exceedingly small." The same thought is found in Plutarch and other ancient writers.—Exchange.

PHYSICIAN'S GLAND EXPERIMENTS ASTOUND SCIENTIFIC WORLD

Through a New Scientific Discovery the Vital Glands May Be Assisted in Their Work of Supplying the Energizing Glandular Secretions Which Are So Necessary to Vigorous Health.

Thousands of Men and Women Now Take Glandogen to Help Regain Normal Health, Vigor and Strength

Wonders have been worked in the rejuvenation of youth and vigor by glandular treatment in one of California's State Institutions. This "Scientific Magic" has been performed by the head physician and surgeon, who reports success in 99 per cent of 1000 cases treated.

Probably the most remarkable instance is the case of a 75-year-old man who displayed the athletic prowess of a youth of twenty by running a 50-yard race in 6 seconds.

EMINENT SCIENTISTS AND PHYSICIANS REVEAL AMAZING FACTS ABOUT GLANDS.

Dr. Serge Voronoff, an international authority on Organotherapy, has said: "The brain, the nerves, the muscles, as well as the liver, the kidneys and all other organs would be incapable of playing any useful part without the aid of the glands. The functioning of our organs is no more than the activity of our glands."

At a recent medical convention in Chicago an eminent physician stated that because of the intimate connection of the nervous system with the glands, many of the nervous disorders were receiving remarkable benefits from glandular treatment. He further stated that this glandular treatment could be taken by mouth like any other medicine.

"BRING YOUR OWN AXE" FOR ORANGE AVENUE DAY WORK

The city will buy three or four dozen brush hooks but citizens are requested to bring axes, picks, mattocks or other tools to Orange avenue on Sunday, April 19, when Orange avenue will be extended to Baden. That was the announcement at the meeting of the trustees of the South San Francisco Civic Land and Improvement Company in the meeting Monday night. The agreement reads in part, if the 20 acre site in the willows which the land company is giving the city, is ever used for any other than park purposes it shall revert to its original owners. Trustee Carl Blank objected to this on the ground that politicians in future years might cause the ground to be put to some other use and the city would lose its park. Trustee McCaffrey objected to the clause on the ground the word park was too narrow and might hinder development of the area by the city. Trustees McNellis, Cunningham and Eschelbach said they favored the agreement as it is drawn in view of the fact all land grants made to cities contain a similar clause which keeps the ground forever in the use for which it is given. When the deadlock occurred, the matter was laid over.

PORTATE CON VOI LA VOSTRA ACCETTA NEL GIORNO DI ORANGE AVENUE

La città comprerà tre o quattro dozzine di falciotti; ma i cittadini sono richiesti di portare con se accette, zappa, badili ed altri arnesi adatti, domenica 19 aprile quando

Orange avenue sarà estesa fino a Baden.

Così, in base a quanto fu annunciato alla seduta del Consiglio Municipale che ebbe luogo lunedì sera.

Nessuno è obbligato di lavorare in quel giorno; ma dato il bellissimo programma ricreativo, vivande e divertimenti, si crede che ben pochi saran quelli che se ne staranno via.

RAYMOND SCHENONE IS SUMMONED BY DEATH

Raymond Schenone, 21, a former resident of this city where he attended grammar school, died Monday morning in Redwood City, a victim of tuberculosis. He finished his grammar school training here in 1919 and entered Cogswell High School, San Francisco, that year. He participated in athletics and was noted for his running ability. Following graduation he went to work in the office of the Bank of Italy, where he remained until he was stricken 14 months ago.

He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schenone of Lawndale, four brothers and two sisters. Funeral services were held Wednesday morning. Burial was made in the Italian cemetery following high mass in Holy Angels Church, Colma.

Nel 1919 egli terminò il suo corso elementare nelle scuole locali e nello stesso anno s'iscrisse alle scuole alte Cogswell di San Francisco. Egli partecipò in diversi concorsi ginnastici e fu no per la sua rara abilità nella corsa podistica.

A scuola finì egli lavorò negli uffici della Banca d'Italia dove vi rimase fino a 14 mesi fa quando fu colpito dal malefico morbo.

Il servizio funebre ebbe luogo mercoledì mattina e l'interment fu fatto nel cimitero italiano in seguito alla messa cantata nella chiesa degli Angeli Santi di Colma.

PURCHASE OF PARK SITES DELAYED BY DEBATE ON REVERSION CLAUSE

Purchase of park and playground sites for the city was held over until the next regular session when a debate arose over the reversion clause in the agreement with the South San Francisco Civic Land and Improvement Company in the meeting Monday night. The agreement reads in part, if the 20 acre site in the willows which the land company is giving the city, is ever used for any other than park purposes it shall revert to its original owners. Trustee Carl Blank objected to this on the ground that politicians in future years might cause the ground to be put to some other use and the city would lose its park. Trustee McCaffrey objected to the clause on the ground the word park was too narrow and might hinder development of the area by the city. Trustees McNellis, Cunningham and Eschelbach said they favored the agreement as it is drawn in view of the fact all land grants made to cities contain a similar clause which keeps the ground forever in the use for which it is given. When the deadlock occurred, the matter was laid over.

Two plans for civic development and one for the building of a civic auditorium were submitted to the board by the chamber of commerce and that of MacRorie & McLaren was recommended. The board decided to hear such plan separately in future meetings before deciding.

Mayor McNellis introduced the subject of weed-cutting and expressed a desire to start earlier this year. It is expected a date for weed removal will be set for early in May.

The Portuguese Society of the State of California was granted a permit to hold its annual parade, dance and fireworks on Sunday, May 10.

Thirty-one arrests were reported.

CANDIDATES CHARGE LIBEL IN SAN MATEO SUIT

W. J. Eva and John E. Casey, members of the city council of San Mateo who were defeated for reelection at Tuesday's contest, are plaintiffs in suits for $25,000 each against Frederick J. Smith, San Mateo's mayor.

The suits are based on the charge that Mayor Smith caused to be printed in the two daily papers of San Mateo, on Saturday, a statement that, in effect, advised the voters not to vote for Casey and Eva. The plaintiffs contend, in their complaints drawn up by Attorneys Ross and Ross, that the mayor's statement cast a shadow of dishonesty on them through mention of city contracts. "I am strongly in favor of keeping the city council free from any suspicion or taint of unfairness in the city's contracts," a part of the mayor's statement read.

Another portion: "Candor, frankness and fair and honest businesslike lines compel me to state that these two incumbents should not be returned to the city council. They have neither the zeal nor the temperament to administer the business of San Mateo under the present character as it should be administered."

Mayor Smith advocated the election of Fred E. Beer, Thomas J. Brady and Albert J. Watson, who were subsequently elected.

Eva has been a resident of the county for 19 years. For 11 years he was a member of the board of city trustees and for two years served as mayor. He is president of the H. Janssen Company, a wholesale grocery firm in San Francisco.

BLAZING RUM BOAT TAKEN AT PIGEON POINT

Ablaze from stem to stern, the 70-foot fishing boat 16-W-3247, out of San Pedro, was taken as a liquor smuggler prize by the Coast Guard Cutter Tamaroa, after a chase shoreward off Pigeon Point, San Mateo county recently.

The captured craft sank while being towed into port by the government cutter.

Reports that a vessel was afire at sea about five miles off Pigeon Point lighthouse were sent out by John Nixon, head lighthouse keeper. At 8 o'clock, he said, he sighted a pillar of fire out at sea.

Other residents along the coast also reported seeing the blaze.

The rum runner carried 300 cases of whiskey and 500 gallons of gasoline. The Tamaroa, lashed to the burning vessel, battled with the flames for two hours off Pigeon Point and early in the day extinguished them, captured the boat's crew of two men and transferred 100 cases of booze to the deck of the cutter. Soon after the Tamaroa lost her quarry as she was towing the charred and water-logged craft over the bar at the entrance to the Golden Gate.

Crew Fries Ship
 It was the crew of the rum runner that set its own craft afire when the government chaser started in pursuit.

The arrival of the Tamaroa, with the details of her chase and the capture of the rum runner, explained the appearance of a burning vessel on the horizon, sighted by lookouts along the coast in the neighborhood of Pigeon Point.

According to Boatswain Charles M. Lucas, in command of the Tamaroa, he sighted the rum runner about five miles off Pigeon Point shortly after dark. He gave chase.

The gasoline launch at first made for an open sea and then suddenly turned when the Tamaroa unlimbered her gun and ran for the beach.

Burst in Flame
 The Tamaroa was almost upon her when the rum runner burst into flames, kindled by her crew of two men. Fred Smith, her captain, and Robert Henderson, the engineer.

Without slackening speed, Captain Lucas ran the Tamaroa up alongside the burning boat and threw his grappling hooks to her deck. Then he and his crew of twelve men, despite the warning of Smith and Henderson that they carried 500 gallons of gasoline, gave battle to the flames.

Boat Flames
 Dividing his men, Lucas detailed some of them to the work of transporting the cases of liquor from the launch to the Tamaroa, while others beat at the flames which were sweeping the rigging and deck house of the smaller craft. The rum runner was becoming waterlogged, but the lightning of her cargo kept her afloat.

After battling for two hours the crew of the Tamaroa, then assisted by the two men on the rum runner, succeeded in subduing the flames.

A line was then attached to the launch, her crew of two taken aboard the Tamaroa and the journey to the Golden Gate begun. It was shortly before dawn that the two vessels headed into the Golden Gate, the rum runner apparently sinking gradually below the waves. Just at the bar she suddenly pitched forward and disappeared.

It is estimated that the rum runner carried approximately $30,000 worth of Scotch whiskey, a third of which was saved, and it is believed that she was transporting this from a larger rum runner of the twelve mile limit.

THINPACTS

By Colgate

Extremely slender—equally smart—and surprisingly modest in cost is the new Colgate Thinpack whose good-looking, gold-finished case fits, almost unnoticed, in the flat purse or flatter pocket of the day's mode.

The Thinpack is an answer to your demand, Madame, for a lighter, thinner, yet entirely practical single compact.

Price, 79c.

STETSON HATS

Easter Time is Dress-up Time
 Top off that new suit with a new spring Stetson in one of the new shades to harmonize.
 There is economy in buying Stetson hats. They are in a class by themselves for long wear—smart style is an additional satisfaction.
